Growing in the Grace of God

We want to live up to it We just naturally start out there Plus, that is the way we learn to live anyway: "Hey, you can do it! Hey, it's in you! Come on, you've got to do it If you do not, who will?" If this is the case, we have left God out of the formula And glorious is What is a good life? An analysis of desire satisfaction ...

things As Nozick says, \perhaps what we desire is to live (an active verb) ourselves, in contact with reality" The more we utilize an experience machine, the less contact we have with reality, with ourselves, with the universe outside the experience machine Implicit assumption: Our wants and desires matter in determining what is a good life

Why should one be ethical?

Why Live Ethically I You might recall that this section of the class is labeled \How should we live?" I I can't claim that we have looked or will look at all the relevant existential questions included in that question I Instead, we are looking at the classic answer to that question one should live ethically

The Cycle of Liberation

As more students asked, "How do we make a dent in this thing that seems so big?" I began to think about how we might consciously transform the Cycle of Socialization (see chapter 2 of this volume) The cycle "teaches" us how to play our roles in oppression, believe, how we want to live our lives, and the way we actually do it

Sermon: While You Wait - Acts 1

We live by the adage: Don't just stand there, do something While God often says to us: Don't just do something, stand there A Waiting means that we give God the benefit of the doubt that he knows what he is doing B Waiting is God's way of seeing if we will trust him before we ...
